LIVE UNITED.

Your gift at work...

By choosing to donate to Chenango United Way at your work place, you are choosing to join a community of givers. Alone, one person can feel overwhelmed by the number and importance of emerging community needs. Alone, one person can feel torn between equally legitimate issues. Alone, one person can only do so much to impact those areas of concern.

Students from Colgate University volunteering at Chenango County Historical Society, CUW Day of Caring 2009.

With Chenango United Way, you don't have to face community problems alone.

By choosing to give to Chenango United Way, one person joins with other individuals to impact the issues that concern you the most. By choosing to give to Chenango United Way, one person joins with community agencies and organizations, groups with the experience and expertise to meet emerging local needs. By choosing to give to Chenango United Way, one person supports a community wide-effort that is well-informed, accountable, and effective.

Your gift stays local

At Chenango United Way, $.88 of every dollar donated goes directly back out into the community in terms of allocable funds. Being both personally and professionally invested in Chenango County, our Board of Directors and volunteers are trained to evaluate local funding proposals according to their clarity, their community cooperation, and their fiscal responsibility.

"It's neighbors helping neighbors..."

Tracy Chawgo,

Fire Chief, Norwich City Fire Dept.

Your gift makes an impact

At Chenango United Way, we fund programs that are directed toward Chenango County's most pressing needs. Through our competitive allocations process, we make sure your donation is invested in programs that demonstrate their ability to utilize your gift most efficiently and effectively, producing measurable outcomes. In addition, funded programs are subject to mid-year site visits and must submit end-year reports. Chenango

United Way is able to track not only where your money goes, but how well it is being used.
